INSTRUCTIONS TO MARKERS

1. Markers are reminded that some aspects of Life Orientation can be interpreted broadly, and therefore broad range, of answers may be given. The marking guideline is not intended to be prescriptive. However answers that are incorrect should never be marked as correct

2. Markers are requested to use their discretion when marking. Answers provided by students should be assessed within the context of their (the student) experiences of life

3. Content should be marked not grammar.

4. For some questions, a number of examples are given These serve as a guide for what type of response is requested. Markers are requested to carefully work through all the different answers to get a sense of what type of answers is acceptable, and what is NOT acceptable.

5 For some answers, markers are guided by this statement (Only this answer).This means that NO other answers are acceptable.

6. Markers are requested to carefully, check the mark allocation per question and marking strictly according to mark allocation.
Also please note:
(2 × 1) means there should be TWO answers and ONE mark allocated per answer
(1 × 2) means TWO marks are allocated for ONE answer

7. Where students are requested to write a paragraph or discuss or explain, ONE -word answer cannot be accepted, and should not be marked

8. Thank you for marking carefully, rigorously and fairly.

Your maintaining a high standard helps to enhance the status of this very important subject – Life Orientation.
